

ANSELL GRIMM & AARON PARTNER ANDREA WHITE DISCUSSES CHILD/SPOUSE ABUSE, SAFETY, AND THE LAW AT THE NEW JERSEY INSTITUTE OF CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

Andrea B. White

Matrimonial & Family Law Partner Andrea White joins panelists at the New Jersey State Bar Association's Family Law Program on "Hot Times in Family Law."

New Brunswick, NJ – Andrea B. White, a partner in Ansell Grimm & Aaron's Matrimonial & Family Law Practice, will speak to nearly 200 attorneys at the New Jersey State Bar Association's November 12th "Hot Tips in Family Law," sponsored by the New Jersey Institute of Continuing Legal Education and held at the New Jersey Law Center.

From 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., attendees will hear White and other panelists discuss such wide-ranging issues as key steps to preserve the safety of children or a parent from physical abuse by other family members to the statutory components of alimony, equitable distribution, and custody.

According to event sponsors, this half-day CLE program will deliver practical advice attorneys need to advance their cases from New Jersey's leading matrimonial attorneys and retired judges.

"Protecting children and other family members from a known abuser can be a key issue for many family law attorneys," says White. "Speaking at the Association's "Hot Tips in Family Law" program is an opportunity to share fresh perspectives and strategic approaches in the negotiation of satisfactory protections and custody arrangements."

"Hot Tips in Family Law" has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 4.5 hours of total CLE credit, which qualify as hours of credit towards certification in matrimonial law.
