ANSELL GRIMM & AARON CANNABIS PRACTICE GROUP LEADER JOSHUA S. BAUCHNER SPEAKS AT THE 1ST ANNUAL CANNABIS SYMPOSIUM ON THE PATH TO LICENSURE

Ansell Grimm & Aaron, PC Partner Joshua S. Bauchner Discusses What New Jersey Businesses Need to Know to File a Competitive Application

WOODLAND PARK, NJ – As the New Jersey cannabis legalization process continues to evolve, what do businesses need to know to file competitive licensure applications? That’s the insight Joshua S. Bauchner, an attorney and head of Ansell Grimm & Aaron’s Cannabis Law Practice will outline in the 1st Annual Cannabis Symposium held Wednesday, March 13, 2019 from 9 am – 4 pm at the New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick, NJ.

According to Bauchner, who has been at the forefront of the legalization movement in both states, “The path to licensure in New Jersey is complicated. I will outline what businesses must consider in structuring a competitive application. This includes how to secure site control, financial commitments, insurance, banking, security, SOPs, engineering surveys, and zoning compliance.”

The 1st Annual Cannabis Symposium is presented in cooperation with the New Jersey State Bar Association Cannabis Law Special Committee and the New Jersey CPA Society. It is intended to provide an overview of how legalized cannabis will dramatically change the practice of law in New Jersey for many legal practitioners – from business to personal injury, family to insurance, banking, and finance to criminal and municipal court, tax to health, real estate to labor and employment, zoning to insurance – and other advisors with clients in this sector.
