

Barry M. Capp

Barry M. Capp is a partner with the Firm. He devotes his practice to commercial litigation and municipal law. Mr. Capp received his B.A. in Biology and B.S. in Criminal Justice from Rutgers University in 1994. He received his J.D. and Certification in Environmental Law from Pace University School of Law in 1998. Mr. Capp was editor of the Pace Environmental Law Review and authored an article on the Freshwater Wetlands Protection Act that was published in Spring 1998.

Prior to joining the Firm in 2001, Mr. Capp practiced with the law offices of DeCotiis, Fitzpatrick & Gluck, LLP and Karcher Rainone, PC.

Ocean, NJ

Main: 732.922.1000
Direct: 732.643.5222
Fax: 732.645.8961
bmc@ansellgrimm.com

Areas of Practice

- Litigation
- Municipal Law

Education

- Rutgers University, B.A. Biology, BS Criminal Justice, Dean's List 1994
- Pace University School of Law, J.D., Certification in Environment Law, Dean's List, 1998

Admissions

- New York Bar, 1999
- New Jersey Bar, 1999
- District of Columbia, 1999
- United States District Court for the District of New Jersey
- Supreme Court of the United States