

David K. Ansell (Ret)

David K. Ansell was senior partner and Chairman of the Matrimonial and Family Law Department. Mr. Ansell devoted his entire practice to matrimonial law. He received his B.A. from the University of North Carolina and his J.D. from the University of Virginia, School of Law.

Mr. Ansell had been very involved in Supreme Court committee work and bar association activities. He served on numerous Supreme Court committees in the family law field and was a member of the original Pashman Committee, which formulated many of the rules and regulations regarding matrimonial law in the State of New Jersey.

Mr. Ansell has been President of the Monmouth County Bar Association, President of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (New Jersey Chapter), and a Trustee of the New Jersey State Bar Association.

In 2007, Mr. Ansell was the honored recipient of the Abe Zager Professionalism Award by the Monmouth County Bar Association. This award is given to the attorney who attains the highest degree of professionalism both in the practice of law and in public service, as decided by the votes of all of the lawyers in Monmouth County. Mr. Ansell was also among the recipients of the 2007 Professional Lawyer of the Year award, annually presented by the New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law. This award is presented in cooperation with bar associations across the State of New Jersey, to lawyers whose character, competence and commitment to the highest professional standards mark them as outstanding members of the bar. In addition, Super Lawyers magazine named Mr. Ansell to its list of outstanding attorneys in the practice of family law in the State of New Jersey for the years 2005 through 2008.

Ocean, NJ

Main: 732.922.1000
Direct: 732.643.5228
Fax: 732.922.4777
dka@ansellgrimm.com

Areas of Practice

- Matrimonial & Family

Education

- University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, B.A., 1958
- University of Virginia School of Law, J.D., 1961

Admissions:

- New Jersey Bar, 1962